THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB

General William Booth

II.—ON DIVINE GOVERNMENT—OBJECTS OF CHRIST'S DEATH—HOW DOES IT AFFECT YOU?

due to their transgression. That penalty is "everlasting death."

11. Now the object of God in giving His Son to die for the world was:

1. To save men from the terrible punishment to which they had exposed themselves by their sins.

2. To bring them into lives of goodness, obedience, and service, and finally to lead them to Heaven.

3. To gratify the compassion of His own heart by saving a world of sinners, who, to meet the demands of justice, have been compassed all over the world, attached to the law they had broken.

Three Objects Gained.

III. By the sacrifice of Christ, each of the following three objects was gained:—

1. On the one hand God shows to all the inhabitants of Heaven, and Earth, and Hell, the importance of obeying the laws He has made, and the awful results of breaking them.

2. It enabled Him also to pardon, sanctify, and take to His bosom all who have repented of their sins, returned to lives of obedience, accepted His mercy, and believed in His Son.

3. And further it revealed, as nothing else could have done, the depth of the pity and mercy, and love of His heart towards men by thus opening a wonderful way for their Salvation.

All-Important Subject.

IV. Where are you, my Comrades, in this all-important subject? What is your experience respecting it?

Jesus died for your sins: to open a way for your reconciliation with the Father, and make it possible for you to lead a holy life, and reach Heaven at last.

When King Charles I. was beheaded on the scaffold: it is said that the people, regarding him as a martyr, dipped their handkerchiefs in his blood, and preserved them as mementoes of his death.

If I could have been present on Calvary and dipped my handkerchief in Christ's Precious Blood and sent it to you as a memento of His dying love, what would you have said?

I cannot do that, but I send you instead the assurance that the Town which was unsaved nearly two thousand years ago, is still open. If their developing properly. I felt my father's eyes on me, and after vainly endeavouring to control the quivering of my lips, burst into tears.

I had not been truthful in action—the overworked little bean plants were the silent witnesses, and I remember with what force the text came to my mind:—

"The sure your seed will find you out!"—British "Young Soldier"

SOME FINE CAPTURES.

Captain Explains What Has Become of Them.

"Among the converts at Peterborough I Corps," says "The Times" of Natal, of a recent date, "we find that some of them have occupied important spheres of usefulness. One was a captain in an Imperial regiment, another a chemist, another was studying for the Roman Catholic priesthood for seven years."

It further remarks that, in an interesting conversation which recently took place between The Army Captain and the Sub-Dean of the city in which the "Soldier" had been making inquiries as to what had become of certain apparently respectable men who had fallen through drink, the Captain was able to inform him that not only did they abstain from the drink, but had so far redeemed the past by God's help as to be now eligible to be placed on the Recruits' Roll of The Salvation Army—South African "Cry."

FATAL FUN.

Yet There Are Others Who Are More Foolish.

Some men have curious ideas of "fun," as may be seen from a recent sad happening in a European city. A group of workmen were standing looking at a broken electric wire, when one of them proposed that they should "amuse themselves with electric shocks." They joined hands, and one of them seized an end of the broken wire, which came in contact with one of the live wires overhead. Five of the men were killed on the spot. It was fatal fooling. Yet even that is surpassed by the folly of those who tamper with sin, however "amusing" the pastime may be at first—"Under the Colours."

A BRAVE SCOUT.

Saves Little Girl from Drowning.

"A little girl of three and her brother, who is a trifle older, were playing with a toy yacht off the sea wall at Gravesend. The tiny craft drifted out to sea, and the baby girl, reaching after it overbalanced and fell into the water. At that very moment Scout William Pennell, aged twelve, passed on his way to the weekly practice, and seeing the child struggling in the water dived in, clothes and all, and fetched her out. Handing her over to the care of a friend, he made no more ado, but went straight home, and only very close questioning by his mother about his wet clothes extracted from him his story—"Life-Saving Scout."

GIFT OF APPLES.

Salvation Army to Distribute Two Hundred Apples Among the Poor of Toronto.

The Oakville Fruit-Growers' Association has generously offered, through Mayor Hocken of Toronto, a large quantity of apples to the Salvation Army. The Chief Secretary has notified the Mayor that The Army could use two hundred barrels of the apples, these will be distributed freely among the poor of the city.

THE WAR RELIEF FUND

$50,000 Wanted to Help Those in Need Who Have no Claim on the Patriotic Funds

A WORD TO SALVATIONISTS! At the time of writing troops from Canada—over 30,000 of them—are hurrying full steam ahead across the Atlantic. The Dominion has also given a million bushels of flour to the Homeland, and millions of dollars have been subscribed by Canadians for the maintenance of the wives and families of the fighting men. Why? Because their King and Homeland were in need, were experiencing a time of fiery trial; so Canadians, whether British born, German born, or native born rallied to the help of King and Empire in a manner that has compelled admiration all round the world.

Salvationists! Our General is in need. Our helpless kith and kin in the Old Land are in distress! God's Kingdom requires our help! Do not withhold it, but act in such a way that our comrades who fight under the Blood and Fire Flag, right round the whole world, shall behold with admiration and gratitude how Canadian Salvationists rally to the aid of the General in his hour of distress! Officers are asked to give a week's Salary, and every Soldier to give a dollar or more—and give it now. "He gives twice who gives quickly."

REFERRING to the inmates of The Army's Institutions, The General recently said:—

"CAN I TURN THEM OUT? OUGHT I TO DO SO? IT SEEMS UNTHINKABLE, AND YET IT MAY BE INEVITABLE FOR OUR ORDINARY INCOME AT HEADQUARTERS HAS ALMOST CEASED! TRULY, I AM IN A STRAIT."

What would it mean if The General had to close the Institutions for men and women who are broken in the battle of life, and children who are helpless? This:—

FOUR THOUSAND MEN AND WOMEN, HANDICAPPED THROUGH FOLLY OR MISFORTUNE—NOW IN THE SOCIAL INSTITUTIONS AND CARED FOR BY THE ARMY—WOULD BE TURNED ADRIPT AT A TIME MORE DIFFICULT TO EARN ONE'S LIVING THAN THE OLDEST LIVING BRITISHER CAN REMEMBER.

Each of these four thousand cost a little more than they are able to earn. These litters added together amount to about $2,000 a week.

In addition to these men and women, The Army has a number of Eventide Homes, in which friendless old people spend their last days in reasonable comfort. What would become of them if these Homes were closed? They cannot earn anything.

There are Children's Homes, in which are sheltered children of tender age who have been taken out of the most painful surroundings and the most distressing conditions. They are now being trained up to live good, useful lives. Where would they go, and what would become of them, if these Homes were closed?

Then there are Hospitals for the sick—Institutions that have been visited and most highly commended by Queen Mary for the benevolent and useful work accomplished in them. Where would the sick go at these times when hospitals and all kinds of institutions are commended for hospital use for the valiant heroes who have been wounded in the service of their country? The maintenance of the Homes and Hospitals cost at least five hundred dollars a week.

ARE THE INDUSTRIAL HOMES FOR HOMELESS MEN AND WOMEN; THE EVENTIDE HOMES FOR HOMELESS AGED; THE HOMES FOR WORSE THAN HOMELESS CHILDREN, AND HOSPITALS FOR THE SICK POOR, TO BE CLOSED FOR WANT OF FUNDS TO SUPPORT THEM?

That is the problem which is pressing upon the heart and brain of our beloved General at this time.

Reasons Why Canada Should Send $25,000 to The General

2.—This Sum will keep open, for 12 months, the Doors of all Homes for Aged Poor, for Homeless Children, and the Hospitals for Poor Sick—which otherwise may be closed.

best to prevent such a dreadful calamity happening.

Officers and Soldiers, let us rally to The General's aid. Every Officer is asked to give a week's salary and every Soldier—who cannot afford more—to give a dollar. Let us do it at once.

If we can send The General $25,000, this will enable him to keep the Homes for the aged and the children, also the Hospitals for the poor sick, open for a year. By that time let us hope and pray that the guns of war will have ceased to roar and peace and plenty will reign.

Through the United Kingdom accommodation for 2,000 women and girls is provided in the sixty-two Rescue Homes and Institutions. During nine months of the past year, 2,877 women and girls were dealt with in these Homes. Of these, 1,597 have entered upon an altogether new life. Shall this work be stopped on account of money to carry it on? The General is in sore straits.

There are 39 Shelters and 22 Elevators; 1,384 men broken in the battle of life are working in the latter. The Shelters have accommodation for 7,722 men. This branch of work also includes the Land Colony, and a Home for homeless boys. Out of 1,732 beds, 635 were placed in situations, 473 restored to friends, 191 enlisted in the army and navy, 172 were sent to other institutions. Are the doors of these Institutions to be closed?

Please remember that one of The General's anxieties is to keep the men and women who are in our Homes at work. A minister, writing an article in a religious paper during the last few days, says with respect to this branch of our operations:—

"The Salvation Army is more than a great evangelising agency. It is a great employer of labour. Do my readers realize that more than 4,000 workers are employed in the various Homes? I do not mean Christian workers, but ordinary manual workers, recruited from the public-house, the Embankment, the roadside. I have been over the Homes and seen the work for myself, and truly it fills me with amazement and thankfulness. Such work can only be maintained if help is received from friends outside The Army, to meet the difference between the actual cost of the workers and their earnings."

THESE ARE WISE AND HELPFUL WORDS. IT WOULD BE TRYING INDEED TO HAVE TO CLOSE ALL DOORS AND THE POOR AND NEEDY; BUT THEY CANNOT BE KEPT OPEN UNLESS FINANCIAL AID MAKES IT POSSIBLE. OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS, YOUR GIFTS WILL HELP TO MAKE IT POSSIBLE.

In my last message I dwell on the all-important truth, that the sacrifice offered by Jesus Christ on the Cross has made it possible for God to deliver men from the guilt, power, and consequences of their sin.

This morning I want to consider the subject a little more carefully and to again invite you to seek with all your hearts the enjoyment of all the blessings provided for you by this manifestation of the Father's love.

First Principles.

In order to make myself better understood I will again fall back upon some of the first principles of the doctrine of the sacrifice of Jesus Christ:—

1. And first I would remind you that we are all the subjects of the Divine Government. That is, we are all under the rule of Jehovah, our Sovereign Lord.

2. Just as earthly governments impose laws, for the well-being of their people, and the maintenance of order, so God rules His subjects by the employment of certain laws.

3. To maintain respect for these laws, certain penalties are imposed upon those who break them. Laws that have no punishment connected with their transgression would not be laws at all. They would be neither more nor less than so much good advice, and little or no notice would be taken of them by those for whose benefit they had been made.

4. As you may know, men have broken these laws, and thereby exposed themselves to the penalty

Soldiers' "Farewell"

STIRRING EXPERIENCES IN THE REGENT HALL DISTRICT

REGENT HALL BAND, in collecting for the Prince of Wales' Fund, met with some stirring experiences between 8.30 and 11 p.m. After playing for an hour to a large crowd of civilians and soldiers at Oxford Circus, during which time all the National Anthem of the allied countries concerned in the war were called for, including the "Marsellaise" (three times), the Band proceeded to the large new premises of the Y.M.C.A. off Tottenham Court Road, where, in a roomed off by the Royal Fusiliers leaving for Malta that night, as the Band approached playing the "Marsellaise," the huge crowd congregated in the street, and the "Tomnies" on the balconies and roof and at all the windows gave it a tremendous reception.

Wheeling round in front of the entrance as quickly as the loud-wind allowed, a ring was formed, and many were the calls for the anthems of the different countries. Perhaps the most striking request was when a young private pushed his way through the ring, and in a broken voice told the Bandmaster that the soldiers inside were anxious that the Band should play "God be with you, you will meet again." This was done, the whole concourse of civilians and soldiers joining in, many of the friends with tears streaming down their faces:—

BE TRUTHFUL!

A Story About a Little Boy and Some Beans.

The following story, related by a clergyman, was sent by a little Welsh girl to illustrate her painting motto, "Be Truthful!":—

One day my father gave me two pecks of beans, bidding me drop one in each of the holes he had prepared for them. When my task was done, he said, "I might go fishing, as I had no time to be idle."

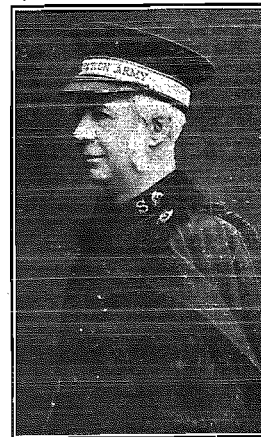

I started valiantly, putting in one at a time, as I had been told. But soon my back began to ache and a pain came in the calves of my legs. I saw I had a long job in front of me, so I began putting two or three in each hole, and then small hand-fuls.

Soon I had finished; and away I went, with never a thought of duty shirked.

But the day came when the beans had grown.

"Dick," said my father, one day after dinner, "your beans have grown well. Let us go and have a look at them."

I walked— with him along the narrow cinder path. All at once he stopped opposite a big patch, where the seedlings were so crowded that there was not the slightest chance of Important--Songster Leaders!

Here is an interesting glimpse at the Contents of "The Musical Salvationist" for Sept.

The September issue of "The Musical Salvationist" is a very special one, and should be in the hands of every Songster. It is full of songs that were sung by the various contingents at the I.C.C. appear in it, and, beyond doubt, it is one of the most interesting collections of International Army songs that has ever been issued. Many of them are the compositions of well-known Army musicians and poets, while in other cases splendid examples of national melodies are united to Army songs.

In Memoriam.

Admirably adapted for a memorial service is the song entitled "Fling Wide the Gates," composed by Commander Evangeline Booth in memory of her father, our General. One of the verses is as follows:

"Fling wide the gates, a life of warfare ended;
Fling wide the gates, a Soldier brave ascended;
Life's battle won, the cause of Christ defended.
More than conqueror through the power of God,
With a bound of trumpet's sound,
From its sound of bay winged his soul away;
Hear the crowned anthem swell:
"Conqueror over death and hell."

Of a very different stamp is the song sung by the American coloured contingent, entitled "Roll Along Jordan." It created quite a furore in London. Though at first sight it may strike some as commonplace, there is a splendid lesson contained in it which is emphasized in the last verse, which runs as follows:

"When trouble comes upon you,
Friend,
Come down like rain;
Don't frown when it's coming down,
Come down like rain."

To the tune of "O Canada," a splendid set of words has been supplied by Adjutant Collier. Try the chorus:

"O Canada bright, O Canada fair,
Home of the ransomed, free from sin and care;

Thrice happy day when we thy joys shall share."

This song should become popular in the Dominion.

If you want a good novelty for an International Demonstration try the song of the Zulus entitled "Hear the Call." It is set to a genuine Zulu air.

A Talented Group.

The West Indian Songsters made a great hit at the Congress, and two of their songs are published, "Raigna Massa Jesus" and "The Gospel Train." The verse of the latter is arranged as a solo with humming accompaniment, with a chorus for all voices. It should take well at a Musical Festival.

A very warlike song is that from the Argentine Republic. It is a translation from the Spanish, and is entitled "Be Daring."

The Italians can always be depended on for splendid melodies and "Joyful News" should make a fine effect.

The stirring tune of the Norwegian Anthem has been joined to a well-known set of words composed by the late Commissioner Railton, and the combination is a good one. Sung by male voices in a broad, majestic manner, it will have a rousing effect.

A Swiss song with a yodel has a distinctly national ring about it. It is doubtful, however, if any Songster Brigade but a Swiss could do the yodelling in the proper manner. It is arranged, therefore, that this particular part may be played on a flute or violin.

A fine item for a full Brigade is the song, "The Army of the Lord," as sung by our Dutch comrades. There is a martial ring about it which should make it go with a swing. This is the chorus: "Come, join the Army of the Lord, March forward at our Captain's word; We'll fight against all the foes of right; We never will give in; With Jesus ever leading on, The battle we shall win."

A simple tune with a touch of sentiment in it is the Danish selection. The original words are being translated, a well-known set of words from the large Song Book have been attached to the tune.

At The Crystal Palace. At the great Musical Festival in the Crystal Palace the German Staff Band made quite a mark with their singing. The piece played on that occasion was "The Musical Salvationist" words are well-known and is a new one.

A distinctly Australian "Called to Service," both words and music being the work of an Australian Officer, goes with a swing, and "catch on" as it can be taught to an audience. The words: "True and unflinching I'll stand, Tight will I clasp my guiding hand, Kindred and home and a besides, I'll gladly leave and for my Saviour guide." These beautiful songs heard all over Canada and thus the people have an opportunity of the I.C.C. will at least benefit by the echoes from

THE LATEST BAND JOURNALS

The Midland (Ont.) Band, pressing very favourably, baton of the Bandmaster. Though for some time past Bandmaster Cohen has been by reason of the Bandmaster's absence. The Bandmaster's back with us.

A parcel of the very latest Journals has arrived, so we tender some new selections to the long. Some additions to our repertoire have been made, contemplate that we shall be the so-called unlucky thirteenth.

Being in a position to receive an excellent program, we have made several trips to the places during the past summer.

On Friday night, September 10, the Peterboro Band, under the direction of the Bandmaster, gave a patriotic concert held in the grounds in that city, when they played "English Melodies," "The Pride," "No. 2," and "The Band Correspondent."

The Male Choir gave a fine singing of "A Soldier's Song" and "The Bank of Allin Water." The Band Correspondent.

Our comrades makes the suggestion: "That the Divisional Commanders and Corps Officers be made feel that they are responsible for spreading the news that the Praying League is an absolute necessity, and to every Salvationist, and in fact, to all Christians."

"This could be done by the method of making suggestions at the meetings, especially Soldier's meetings and Holiness meetings. Personally, I see no reason why the Corps should not be connected up with the Praying League, and the sooner, the better for themselves and the glory of God. 'God bless you'."

COMMISSIONER HODDER, appointed to New Zealand.

COMMISSIONER HODDER who has been appointed Territorial Commander of New Zealand, is a man with long memory. Hence his devotion to the Flag, his enthusiasm for the Army, and his unwavering loyalty to the General. His memory continually before him the forelock, have placed him the forefront of a soul-saving movement that extends to almost every corner of the world.

He is well known in every part of New Zealand, where, as a Corporal and a Provincial Officer, he has made several trips to the work have been found in the good condition of the Officers under his control, the higher level of character of his Soldiers, and more suitable housing of Army men. He had a period of service in Ireland.

HON. SIR JOHN GIBSON, Late Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.

He commanded his battery at the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

New Premier of Ontario. Hon. William Howard Hearst, K.C., representative from Sault Ste. Marie, is the successor of Sir James Whitney as Prime Minister of Ontario. His advance in political life has been rapid, as it is only six years ago that he was first elected to the Provincial Parliament.

He is a native of Bruce County, Ontario. Choosing the bar as a profession, he became very prominent as a lawyer in the Soo, and on the withdrawal of Hon. Frank Coleman from the portfolio of Lands, Forests, and Mines, Mr. Hearst was chosen as his successor. He was well qualified for this position on account of his intimate knowledge of the resources and problems of New Ontario.

He still retains this portfolio, in addition to being Premier, and will carry the dual burden till he finds a suitable man to succeed him.

Hon. Mr. Hearst is a member of the Methodist Church, and an ardent advocate of temperance. We congratulate him upon the new honour which has fallen to him and wish him a long, continued career of success in the service of the Province.

A Newfoundland Salvationist. The four young women in the photo on this page are all teachers in The Army's Day Schools in Newfoundland and are all sisters. They are the daughters of Recruiting Sergeant-Major and Mrs. James Barter, of St. John's, Nfld. And there are more at home whom our comrades and his wife hope to see in the service of The Army before long.

HON. W. H. HEARST, New Premier of Ontario.

As one of The Army's stalwarts, a splendid trophy of the influence and power of The Army's work in that city. Before his conversion he was a very heavy drinker, but from the moment he knelt at The Army Penitential form he commenced to lead a sober and Godly life, and he is now respected by all classes for his straightforwardness and his clean-cut Salvationism. His occupation is that of truckman, or expressman, and it is an indication of the influential position to which he has risen that he is President of the Truckmen's Union. He has established a splendid reputation for himself as an expert mover of household furniture and pianos. His success in business is due to his uprightness and honesty, and he does not forget the part The Army played in setting him on the right road to temporal as well as spiritual prosperity.

The fondest ambition, therefore, of both himself and the partner of his joys and sorrows is that all their children should be Salvation Army Officers. As they all show marked ability and are very successful in their school studies, besides being ardent Salvationists, there is every reason to hope that the ambition of this worthy pair will be realized.

Sympathy in Sorrow. Sir John will also be remembered with gratitude for the great part he played in the Citizens' Memorial Fund to The Army's Founder, and also for the deep sympathy he manifested during The Army's sorrowful experience in connection with the Empress disaster.

For forty years or more Sir John has been connected with the Canadian militia, and now holds the rank of Honorary Colonel. At a recent public gathering he expressed his regret that he could not go to the front and serve his country as a soldier, but it was some consolation that he was able to send two sons.

Hon. Sir John Gibson. Hon. Sir John Morrison Gibson, K.C.M.G., K.C., LL.D., the retiring Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, has on more than one occasion manifested in no uncertain manner his high regard for The Salvation Army. In his home city of Hamilton, when presiding at a meeting in the interests of the local Rescue Home in 1908, he said that it afforded him much pleasure to be chairman of such an assembly, as it gave him an opportunity of showing his sympathy with the work of The Army, and his more-than-ordinary sympathy with the work identified with the new Home.

His office as Lieut.-Governor brought him into closer touch with The Salvation Army than before. When The General visited Toronto in November, 1913, Sir John presided at the afternoon meeting in the Massey Hall. His warm words on that occasion cheered the hearts of the Salvationists. He said in reply: "The Salvation Army has to use an every-day language expression—made good. Many years ago in its initial stages in Canada, the people thought it was more or less a temporary thing; a movement which came, would dwell for a little while, and by-and-by sweep away as a mere memory. In contrast to that early notion all will now admit that throughout the world, because it is a world-wide Army, there is a more potent influence for good; there is no more practical and active work in carrying out the mission given by Christ to this world."

How to Improve Praying League. (By Mrs. Bessie Johnston.)

A comrade who is prominent as a Soldier and writer of music and Army Songs, writes us that the Praying League has proved a great blessing to him. He reads the Daily Bible Studies and finds them profitable. He was first led into the Army through the earnestness of the Soldiers, and because they prayed for him; and now, "his own most sincere wish is to be true to God and win precious souls to the Kingdom."

Method of Reading Prayer League. He gives the following as his method of studying the Prayer League Column:

"I have received great blessing by reading the Praying League column, by the fact that the moment I get to it, I am shown—in no uncertain manner—who and what to pray for."

"I usually get my Prayer League morning. On Monday night I have no meeting (it being Band Praying League column). Then I pray for each person or for whatever the request may be separately. In this way the soul settles, and keep in close with Almighty God, in that manner I do receive great benefit."

Our comrades makes the suggestion: "That the Divisional Commanders and Corps Officers be made feel that they are responsible for spreading the news that the Praying League is an absolute necessity, and to every Salvationist, and in fact, to all Christians."

"This could be done by the method of making suggestions at the meetings, especially Soldier's meetings and Holiness meetings. Personally, I see no reason why the Corps should not be connected up with the Praying League, and the sooner, the better for themselves and the glory of God. 'God bless you'."

"We heartily endorse this and hope many will write details."

Our comrades makes the suggestion: "That the Divisional Commanders and Corps Officers be made feel that they are responsible for spreading the news that the Praying League is an absolute necessity, and to every Salvationist, and in fact, to all Christians."

"This could be done by the method of making suggestions at the meetings, especially Soldier's meetings and Holiness meetings. Personally, I see no reason why the Corps should not be connected up with the Praying League, and the sooner, the better for themselves and the glory of God. 'God bless you'."

Ontario's New Governor.

Hon. J. S. Hendrie, C.V.O., has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, to succeed Sir James Whitney.

He is a native of Bruce County, Ontario. Choosing the bar as a profession, he became very prominent as a lawyer in the Soo, and on the withdrawal of Hon. Frank Coleman from the portfolio of Lands, Forests, and Mines, Mr. Hearst was chosen as his successor. He was well qualified for this position on account of his intimate knowledge of the resources and problems of New Ontario.

He still retains this portfolio, in addition to being Premier, and will carry the dual burden till he finds a suitable man to succeed him.

Hon. Mr. Hearst is a member of the Methodist Church, and an ardent advocate of temperance. We congratulate him upon the new honour which has fallen to him and wish him a long, continued career of success in the service of the Province.

A Newfoundland Salvationist. The four young women in the photo on this page are all teachers in The Army's Day Schools in Newfoundland and are all sisters. They are the daughters of Recruiting Sergeant-Major and Mrs. James Barter, of St. John's, Nfld. And there are more at home whom our comrades and his wife hope to see in the service of The Army before long.

Brother Barter is a well-known figure in St. John's, and stands out

A SMASHING SUCCESS.

The Bowmanville Comrades Nearly Double Their Target.

On Sunday and Monday, Sept. 20th and 21st, we had our Harvest Festival meetings, which were well attended and financially successful. Everyone enjoyed the music of the Band, and it is improving. Our sale of goods on Monday night brought us $21.15. Our target was sixty dollars, and we cleared $116.

The comrades helped splendidly. Everything seems to be booming under the leadership of Lieutenant Luxton and Lieutenant Stone, and the guiding hand of God.

The latest addition to the Band is a class A euphonium (Army mack). We are for victory for God and souls.—H. S.

DID LIVELY BUSINESS.

Harvest Festival Sale at Winnipeg II. (Man.).

On Sept. 20th, the Harvest Festival meetings of Winnipeg II. Corps were conducted by Captain Cox in the morning, and in the evening by Staff-Captain Fudge, assisted by the Captain. One soul surrendered.

On Wednesday the Harvest Festival sale took place, and Brother Klyne made a capital auctioneer. Staff-Captain Peacock brought along the Boys' Band, which played several pieces, and after over two hours of pleasure and amusement, the auctioneer declared the sale closed. Everything agreed that the effort this year was a success.—A. Giles.

SOLD THREE WAGON LOADS.

Successful Harvest Festival Sale at New Westminster, B. C.

Our Harvest Festival week-end has proved very successful in every way. The services on Sunday were all that could be desired. We had a good open-air and good service. The Citadel was tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and produce.

We had a good attendance for the Harvest Festival sale on Monday evening, which was conducted by Adjutant H. Habkirk, of Vancouver Industrial. Three wagon loads of fruit and vegetables and a large quantity of fancy work and sewing were disposed of bringing in over sixty-six dollars in all.

This was Adjutant Habkirk's first visit to Westminster Corps. Captain Caruthers, who is in charge of the work here, was converted eight years ago when the Adjutant was in charge of Wetaskwin, Alberta.—"Sunshine."

BLAKE TOWN, Nfld.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 20th, the meeting was conducted by an old comrade, Lieutenant Clark, while Elderly, of the Baptist Church, Frampton assisted. Her singing was listened to with rapt attention.

WAS TREASURER AND BANDSMAN.

Captain and Mrs. Leech Farewell From Lippincott (Toronto).

The meetings on Sept. 27th, were led by Captain and Mrs. Leech, who have farewelled for Sault Ste. Marie. Mrs. Captain Leech spoke in the morning, and the Captain at night. The farewell of these comrades is a great loss to the Corps, as they have been a great help to us. The Captain was the Corps Treasurer, and played first baritone in the Band. His going is doubly felt.

FIVE SURRENDERS.

Subject of Prayer Surrenders at Moose Jaw, Sask.

On Thursday night we had a rousing open-air and a big march, headed by our Silver Band. Adjutant Hamilton led inside, and two men yielded themselves to God.

One of these men was a C.P.R. engineer; the other one the brother of a Salvation Army Officer—the subject of many prayers. Hallelujah! On Sunday we had Harvest Festival meetings all day. Adjutant Hamilton, assisted by Lieutenant E. Delamont, of Weyburn, led the meetings, and the Band supplied special music.

We had two large open-airs at night, and big crowds on the march. The Citadel was crowded to its utmost capacity. After several short testimonies from the comrades, Adjutant Hamilton gave an address. A well-fought prayer meeting ended with three precious souls, one man and two women, at the Mercy Seat.—"Mac."

We have welcomed Adjutant and Mrs. Mercer, from St. Thomas, to the Band. Adjutant Mercer, of two hundred voices, took part in a patriotic concert in the Armouries. "English Melodies," which was heartily applauded, was read by Adjutant Mercer. He has taken up solo trombone.—G. C.

A DAY OF DAYS.

Men Cadets, with Brigadier Phillips, Visit Rhodes Ave. (Toronto).

At Rhodes Avenue Brigadier and Mrs. Phillips, assisted by the Men's Staff and Cadets, conducted the meetings. The district was stirred by the rousing open-airs.

The Cadets' visitation of several Soldiers, who, through sickness, were unable to attend the special services, was appreciated.

The playing of the Cadets' Band was without doubt a source of comfort to the inmates of the hospital. By Captain Spooner, the Cadets' Bandmaster, spoke in the morning.

The afternoon service was piloted by the Brigadier. A five-minute talk by Adjutant Cornish, and a short address by Captain Woolcott all went to make a varied and interesting program.

After a hard-fought prayer meeting at night, in which Mrs. Brigadier Phillips conducted appropriate choruses, four souls yielded to the service of the Saviour. Captain and Mrs. Wilson deserve praise for their assistance.—E. H. G.

We have just been visited by Captain Van der Ven. The Captain, on Saturday night, delivered in Dutch a lecture on "The Lowlands." The Hall was filled to the utmost, and many had to take seats on the platform.

The lecture was in Dutch, and a number of the comrades held a prayer meeting in the Young People's Hall, and a young man was converted.

The meetings on Sunday were well attended, and the Captain's translations of well-known hymns drew a large crowd to the meetings, and many new members.

Over thirty have sought the Saviour since the opening here, and many are taking the stand for God. An enrollment is soon to take place. The Officers in charge are Captain and Lieutenant Marshall.

NEW FINANCIAL SECRETARY

Welcomed to Territorial Headquarters at Officers Meeting Conducted by Chief Secretary

At a meeting conducted by the Chief Secretary in the Council Chamber at Territorial Headquarters on Tuesday afternoon, October 6th, at which all the Headquarters Staff, as well as the Headquarters Officers and the Training College Staff, were present, a welcome was given to Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Smeeton.

Lieut.-Colonel Chandler, Brigadiers Morris and Miller, and Major Jost were the speakers who voiced the feelings and sentiments of the Officers towards our newly-appointed Financial Secretary and his wife. Each had something to say regarding former associations with the Colonel, either in England or in Canada, and all were unanimous in praising his good qualities and his ability.

Colonel Gaskin also spoke highly of them and expressed his confident belief that the Territory would benefit greatly through the appointment of the Colonel to such an important position.

Mrs. Smeeton gave a charming little talk in the course of which she said that coming back to Toronto was just like coming home, for it was her birthplace, and also the place where she had been born again. That was twenty-seven years ago at the Lippincott Street Corps. She had come back to be of service, she said, and would do it in her power to help and bless her comrades and save souls.

Colonel Smeeton, who is known as a very fluent and able speaker, well sustained his reputation. He expressed his gratitude for the kind welcome accorded him, and said that he had come wholeheartedly to help uphold the reputation of the Canadian Headquarters. His highest ambition was to obey God, he said, and he entered on his new duties with the consciousness that God was with him. The Chief Secretary brought the meeting to a close with song and prayer.

A SUCCESSFUL TOUR.

Brigadier McLean Says Good-Bye to the Comrades of the Alberta Province.

(By Wire.)

Swift Current, Sask., Oct. 6.—Brigadier McLean, accompanied by the Chancellor, concluded an exceptionally successful farewell tour of the Alberta Corps at Medicine Hat Monday night. Officers, Soldiers, and friends turned out in large numbers to wish the farewell Divisional Commander Good-speed. Great regret over the farewell was expressed by all.

The week-ends at Edmonton and Calgary Citadel Corps felt of particularly rich blessing and power. Seventeen souls for the tour. In spite of unfavourable weather, the crowds were good. Altogether, the whole tour has been very successful, but the work in some parts of Alberta at the present is very trying. However, all concerned are optimistic, and doing their best to keep the ring flying. Travelling, Sunny Alberta. Staff-Captain Peacock.

ARMY SONGS.

HOW WILL YOU DO?

Tunes.—Jordan's flood, 94; Song Book, 121.

When you come to death's cold flood,

How will you do?

You who now neglect your God,

How will you do?

Death will be a solemn day,

When the soul is forced away,

It will be too late to pray,

How will you do?

You who laugh, and scoff, and sneer,

When in Jordan you appear,

Say you have no soul to save,

When you sink beneath the wave.

You who have no more than form,

Can you brave the awful storm?

When the waves of death assail,

Every reed and pop will fail,

Forms will be of no avail.

COME, JESUS, LORD!

Tunes.—Come, comrades, lead, 136.

He lives, 138; Song Book, 361.

Come, Jesus, Lord, with holy fire,

Come, and my quiekened heart inspire,

Cleansed in Thy precious Blood;

Now to my soul Thyself reveal.

Thy mighty working let me feel,

Since I am born of God.

Let nothing now my heart divide,

Since with Thee I am crucified,

And live to God in Thee.

Tend to the world and all its toys,

Its idle pomp and fading joys,

Jesus, my glory be.

Me with a quenchless thirst inspire,

A longing, infinite desire,

And fill my craving heart.

Less than Thyself, Oh, do not give;

In night Thyself within me live;

Come, all Thou hast and art!

JESUS IS STRONG.

Why are you doubting and fearing?

Why are you still under sin?

Have you not found His grace close about?

He's mighty, to save, let Him in?

Chorus.

Jesus is strong to deliver!

Mighty to save! mighty to save!

Jesus is strong to deliver!

Jesus is mighty to save!

You say, 'I'm weak, I'm helpless;

I have tried again and again;

Well, this must be true.

But 'tis not what you do—

Thy He who's Mighty to save, at about
